A few months later, I was reading Susan Griggs' Folklore and Firesides of Pomfret, Hampton and Vicinity when I came across the following passage describing "two amusing incidents [which] have come down to us" about evangelical farmers along "the Hampton-Pomfret line" "who proclaimed the second coming of Christ and the end of the world... Certain members of the Kimball family robed themselves in white on the day appointed for the 'Judgment,' and spent the day on a shed roof ...
