November 22, 2011. One of the hottest topics in evangelical circles is "social justice.". Many authors, including Kevin DeYoung, have addressed the subject of justice and the role the church should have in pursuing it. Dr. Tim Keller, Pastor of Redeemer Presbyterian in New York (PCA), has also written a book on the topic of social justice. In Generous Justice: How God's Grace Makes Us Just, Dr. Keller explains his view on what justice is, why and how

Generous Justice Quotes by Timothy J. Keller Generous Justice contains two basic ideas, and you can see these in the title and subtitle. First, God's work of graciously justifying a person will inevitably result in the believer's desire to be just and to do justice. Justice follows justification. God's grace makes us just, as the subtitle puts it. If you are a Christian, you should have a growing desire to see justice done, both in this life and the next.
