The character is named after Eru from Mashima's one-shot manga Fairy Tale, which served as a pilot for Fairy Tail. [ vol. 2 :190] Mashima initially designed her to only shed tears from one eye due to a defect with her artificial eye, but he eventually abandoned this aspect after accidentally drawing some scenes where Erza has tears flowing from both eyes.

Kabuki Theatre comes to life in a child friendly way in this dramatized collection of fairy tales from Japan. The show's opening introduces children to the elements of Kabuki; music, costumes, vocal use, stage assistants, and movement are succinctly but thoroughly explained and demonstrated. Classic fairy tales are then retold in that style. Momorato The Peach Boy is the story of a boy ...
