Negro Wars A Short And Critical Examination Of The Modern ...

Negro Wars is a book that exclusively deals with the modern-day westernised black woman, her dysfunctional mindset and as a result the destruction she has brought upon black society for the past 50 years. After 50 years of brutality against black men and black society it is time to examine, scrutinise and place the modern-day black woman on trail for her crimes against the black nation.

Black War, (1804–30), term applied to hostilities between Aborigines and white European soldiers and settlers on the Australian island of Tasmania (then called Van Diemen's Land), which resulted in the virtual extermination of the original Aboriginal population of the island. Armed conflict began in May 1804, when a military detachment opened fire on an Aboriginal hunting party.
