By working together we were able to come up with multiple themes and symbols that we considered to be the most important to discuss. "The House That Race Built" has given us the unique opportunity to take two novels impacted by race, racism and slavery and find their similarities.

The House That Race Built
The House that Race Built: Critical Pedagogy, African-American Education, and the Re-Conceptualization of a Critical Race Pedagogy. Critical pedagogy has been widely characterized as a crucial construct in challenging the inequalities that have evolved in the context of schooling in the U.S. Evidence of this can be found in critical pedagogy's attempt to offer critique of the analytic connections between race and education within the context of the African-American struggle for humanity.

From: The House that Race Built. Editor Wahneema Lubiano. New York: Pantheon Books. 1997. FROM THE BEGINNING I was looking for a sovereignty--an authority--that I believed was available to me only in fiction writing. In that activity alone did I feel coherent, unfettered. There, in the process of writing, was the willed illusion, the control ...
