Throne of the Crescent Moon - Wikipedia

Throne of the Crescent Moon spielt in einer arabisch gefärbten Welt, was an sich nichts neues ist, aber eine schöne Abwechslung zu den westlich geprägten Fantasy-Geschichten, die mit George R.R. Martins Game of Thrones wieder einmal eine Renaissance erleben.

Throne of the Crescent Moon is an adult fantasy set in an alternate Middle East during the golden age of the Caliphate. It richly evokes the world of Ali Baba, Sinbad, and Scheherazade. I love the way Saladin Ahmed creates his story, lovingly portraying his characters and his settings, bringing them all to vivid life.

See how your benevolent monarch, Jabbari akh-Khaddari, Khalif of Abassen and of all the Crescent Moon Kingdoms, protects you from the grasping hands of thieves! See how he punishes the wicked swiftly and terribly!" Traffic still moved at an inchworm's pace, but most of the folk on the road were now gawking at the square.

Throne of the Crescent Moon by Saladin Ahmed | LibraryThing

Throne of the Crescent Moon is a pretty good debut novel. I thought the characters were great, the plot fun, and the world a nice change from medieval Europe. The magic is the weakest part of the book, because it seems to be used too easy by the characters, with little or no cost involved. The plot is straight forward and predictable, but
